Dear Mark,

Your assumption is correct, all my records will become an archive, I've done and will do no censoring of them, and you are right to record your account of your non-connection with livingstone.

Gallen never mentioned this other researcher being a friend of Carroll. Who is it?

I do not question your word on this but the last call from Livingstone does not really confirm it.

But since then Livingstone has been silent, so far as I know.

I'll be glad tp help ypu all I can, re Marcus Levin. There is some stuff you might not want to use, pictures he had taken that got out and were used to keep him running fof the assembly again, for example. I knew reporters to whom the FBI showed them and one of Clay Shaw's lawyer had and may still have them. I declined an invit to see them.

He is a literary thief, beginning with his first book.

Can't search my files for you but you are welcome to what I have if you get it yourself.

Hope you get a job soon, an interesting one.

Best,

Harold
